BLANKET OF SNOW

Beaver county and the entire northwest is covered with a blanket of snow. Snow begun falling Sunday night and continued until Tuesday night covering the level more than a foot and drifting to many feet in places. Extreme temperature of 11 below zero registered Wednesday night and the preceding days and nights were sharp but today the sun is bright and the temperature moderate.

Train and Mail service have nil, the last to arrive being Monday. It will perhaps be Saturday before main service is resumed.

The value of the snow is inestimable. It will bring small grain forth with a jump and will put a fine season in the ground for spring work. Everybody will be heartened. Old Beaver county has again made good on the eleventh hour.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

Bill Hennig, Jack Forbes and Archie Mosier were successful in making their escape from the county jail last Thursday night. They had asked for water and the guard, Dwight Bradshaw, opened the door to set in the bucket. They overpowered him and made their escape. The other officers were notified and search immediately begun but no trace was found of them. Archie Mosier returned Friday and gave himself up but up to date the other two, who were sentenced to eighteen months in the State penitentiary, have not been found. Mosier was sentenced to thirty days in jail and had served about half of his time.

CHURCH SOCIAL

A Social given by the Ladies' Bible Class of the Christian church last Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnes was a splendid success. A large number were present and took part in the novel entertainment planned by the committee. Quite a number of our former attendants at Sunday School were present and added greatly to the good time of the evening. The original purpose of the party was to inspire a desire in many to attend Sunday School and it is hoped that they enjoyed themselves so much that they will get back into the work again. Delicious refreshments concluded a pleasant evening.

MARY NILES WEDS

Beaver friends will read with interest of the marriage of Miss Mary Niles which occurred at Pueblo, Colorado, the past week. We did not learn the groom's name. He is a printer and he and Mary were employed in the same office. The Herald joins with friends in congratulations.

MRS. KINDER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. D. B. Kinder, who had been ill for many months of cancer of the stomach, passed away at her home on Willow Creek, southwest of Beaver, Wednesday, March 1st. On account of the deep snow, the funeral will not be held till Sunday or Monday.

SAM COTHRAN DROPS DEAD

Sam Cotheran, of southwest of Beaver, dropped dead at his home Monday. His funeral will be held Saturday and interment made in Bethany cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Russell, teachers of the Sunset school were Beaver callers Saturday.

Mrs. R. H. Loofbearrow returned home from Lebanon, Tennessee, Thursday of last week.

J. H. Stalling and family motored to the Hawren Hall home near old La Kemp Sunday.

Albert Litton of Laverne vicinity transacted business here Saturday.

J. L. Hudson of Logan attended to business here Saturday.

A. C. Watkins was a Beaver visitor from Boyd Saturday.

C. W. Haskell was a Beaver caller Saturday.

WILL BUILD K. & O. SOUTHEAST TO FORGAN

It is not unlikely that within the next few days graders will begin the work of building the Kansas and Oklahoma railroad to Forgan, and the work of laying the track will follow in rapid order.

The work on the northwest end is going along very satisfactorily, and under the early completion of it at this time there is nothing to hinder the early completion of the road to the Colorado line.

With the principle difficulties on the southwest end ironed out, President Byers will now devote his energies to building to a connection with the Katy at Forgan.

It was the original intention to build this line first, but later, plans were changed, and the line toward the Colorado line was started. The steel is now across the line and grading is in progress in Stevens county.

The grading contract was let yesterday and work is to start at once at the east line of the city. The greater part of the grading has been done in Oklahoma and when the grade reaches the Oklahoma line, it will be but a short time until the track layers can go to work.

President O. P. Byers was in Liberal the first of the week and is well pleased with the progress made in the past few months. Railroad building in the winter is usually slow work, but the building of the line into Stevens county has been done with remarkable speed, considering weather conditions, and it is expected that the line to the southeast will progress at about the same rate.

There is an insistent demand at this time for the building of the Katy connection. The difference in the price of grain will mean a big thing for the farming community which has been hit by low prices, and will mean added progress for the town. —Liberal (Kas.) Democrat.

THIS SALE OCCURS, RAIN OR SHINE

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the advertisement of the sale of the Texas County Breeders' Association, which will be held in the big Free Fair Pavilion, in Guymon, Oklahoma, on Friday, March 24th. This promises to be the biggest event of its kind ever held in the Panhandle of Oklahoma—in fact, most all of the leading breeders of this section of the country are participating in this sale. Their catalogue, which is now being printed, will list something over one hundred purebred cattle, and something over fifty pure blooded hogs. This sale will afford the farmers who want to improve their herds the greatest opportunity they ever had to secure such animals as are needed to build up the blood lines, without having to travel a great distance, and go to a great expense. They have listed in this sale, many of the very finest blood lines of the various breeds, and every farmer of this section who is interested should send in a request for a catalogue, to Joe A. Meade, Secretary, Guymon, Okla.

GRADING FOR K. & O. STARTED FIRST OF WEEK

LeMonnier Brothers, who have the contract for grading for the Kansas & Oklahoma railroad from Liberal southeast to the state line, a distance of about 3.1 miles, began work on the grade Monday noon. The contract calls for the completion of this section by May 1.

A carload of ties for the road northwest to the Stevens county line came in last night and several more are expected in the near future. That section of the road is being put into first class condition.

Joint rates on grain to Tennessee, Arkansas and Louisiana over the Kansas & Oklahoma are now in effect. The joint rates into Missouri will probably be in effect the latter part of the month. —Liberal (Kas.) News.

ABSOLUTELY LAST EXTENSION

The Herald will continue its Special Offer during March. This is absolutely the last extension. During this time, if you reside in the county, you may renew for The Herald or place a new subscription for only $1.00 per year. If you reside outside the county, the price is $1.50. This rate is good for March only. After March 31st the price to all will be $1.50 for inside the county and $2.00 for outside the county subscriptions. Better take advantage of this opportunity to save 50c on subscription. It is not much but, every little bit helps. Remember, the Special Offer absolutely closes after March 31st.

MINISTER IS A HEALER

Hutchinson, Feb. 18.—"It was the work of God. Please don't give me credit for a miracle."

Rev. Fred Just, Beaver county, Oklahoma, farmer-evangelist, asked Hutchinson papers last night not to hail him as a miracle worker. Wednesday night after prayer by Rev. Just, other ministers of the Mennonite Brethren church and the congregation, Mrs. Henry Warkentin of near Buhler, who has been bedfast for almost a year from rheumatism and who was carried into the church, walked down the aisle of the church, unassisted, except by the church pews, to a waiting automobile outside.

Mrs. Warkentin attended services at the church again last night. It was the first time in the past year that the woman has been able to walk from the carriage into the church. Although yet feeble, the woman, a victim of the epidemic of influenza which swept the country three years ago, was able to walk.

"You must remember that I did only a little to aid in Mrs. Warkentin's recovery. It was an act of God," the Reverend Just told The Gazette last night. "We, of the Mennonite church, give all the credit for the recovery of sick, to God. We assist any who are ill, but do not make a practice of performing miracles."

Much depends upon the state of mind of the individual and little upon the prayers of the pastor, the minister declared.

Rev. Just lives near Balko, and is well known to many Beaver folk.

Burbank is an honest grafter.

Mrs. Amos Hittman, who lives southeast of town, is very ill.

A. J. Seal and wife were Beaver visitor Saturday.

Earl Gravatt marketed kafir in Beaver Saturday.

G. W. Coberley and wife were Beaver visitors Saturday.

Ed Verhelst of Forgan vicinity was in Beaver Friday.

Linc Dickson and John Taylor of Gate were in the county seat last Saturday.

Lou Pratt and Mrs. Isie Kile came in from Branson, Colorado, last Saturday to attend to some business matters here.

Luther Bridwell, Mr. McCurry and the Gambill brothers drove to the former's farm near Riverside Sunday.

Mrs. Alfred Brown left last week for Magdalena, New Mexico, to join her husband, who has been there for some time.

Dr. L. L. Long and Buhl Bradshaw left Sunday morning for consistory at Guthrie. The former will attend to business in Oklahoma City while gone.

O. P. Smith and wife visited Sunday afternoon at the Charlie McNabb home near Forgan, where their daughter, Miss Carrie, boards.
